The Schomberg Community Farm is Officially Open!

Sept 9th 2017 was the Official Opening of The Farm. In attendance was MPP Deb Schulte, Mayor Steve Pellegrini and Councillors Avia Eek and Bill Cober. Together for the ribbon cutting with Angelo Santorelli from Trisan Construction and members of the Farm Committee.

The Schomberg Farmers Market, The Schomberg Horticultural Society, The Schomberg Lions Club, Happy Honey, YRFN, Bob the Blacksmith, Sundance Meadows, Pollen Bee Nests and other activities, all helped to make it an enjoyable day for all.

Did you see the Nameplates on the Bridge?

Thank you to all those that supported this important Farm Fundraiser

First Year with the bridge the Farm has seen lots of activity. 16 plots rented, and all types of fruit and vegetables were grown.

The weather created some challenges and now we all know the Farm IS built on FLOOD PLAIN!

Grade 2 class from Schomberg Public School came and planted Pumpkins in late June.

New for 2018

Happy Honey Bees are coming to the Farm

Thank you to The Township of King's Parks, Recreation and Culture Department for all their work cutting grass, maintaining trees, providing wood chips and tilling the land. In time for our Grand Opening.

If anyone has any bricks, wood, fencing, native plants, tools or anything else to donate, that the Farm maybe able to utilize please contact us.
